Payment with application $

Note: We do not accept cash payments.

Is this policy to be reinstated on a PAC basis? Yes No

If 'yes', complete section 5.

Note: If insufficient money is collected with the application, we will issue a special PAC withdrawal to pay the outstanding payments.

5 Pre-authorized chequing (PAC)

Notes: All PAC payors must agree to all of the following terms in order to use the PAC payment option.

All PAC payors agree:

- Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada (company) may make deductions, at any time, for regular recurring payments and/or one-time payments from time to time, from their bank account indicated in this application for insurance,
- all pre-authorized debits will be processed as personal under the Payments Canada rules (this means having 90 calendar days from the date any payment is processed to claim reimbursement for any unauthorized payment),
- the withdrawal amount is considered variable under the Payments Canada rules,
- any notices to be sent to them under this agreement may be sent to the applicant/owner's most recent address that the company has on record at the time a notice is sent,
- the company may charge a fee and may cancel the PAC for any withdrawal that is not honoured,
- all persons whose signatures are required to sign on the bank account indicated below have signed section 7 as a PAC payor,
- the company may not assign this authorization to another company or person, in order to permit them to debit the PAC payor's account for these payments (e.g. where there has been a change in control of the company), without providing at least 10 days prior written notice, and
- to waive the requirement that the company notify them of:
 - this authorization before the first payment is processed
 - any subsequent payments, and
 - any changes to the amount or date of the payment initiated by them or the company.

a) Start a new PAC (Complete c) and d). Regular PAC withdrawals will start one month from the date the application was signed unless otherwise indicated in c.)

b) Add to existing PAC that is paying for policy
(Regular PAC withdrawals for this policy will be withdrawn on the same day each month as the existing PAC for the policy number listed above, unless otherwise indicated in c.)

c) Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada will withdraw funds to pay all payments, including all outstanding payments if selected, on this policy each month from the bank account shown on the sample cheque attached or any account designated.

All persons whose signatures are required to sign on this account must sign the authorization on page 6. For a joint account requiring more than one signature to withdraw funds, all the account holders must sign the authorization on page 6.

We will withdraw all outstanding payments immediately.

Regular PAC withdrawals will start one month from the date the application was signed or on _____ (dd-mm-yyyy).

The payor may cancel this authorization at any time, subject to providing the company with 10 days notice. Payors should contact their financial institution about their rights regarding cancellation. A sample cancellation form is available at www.payments.ca.

Payors have certain recourse rights if any debit does not comply with this agreement. For example, payors have the right to receive reimbursement for any debit that is not authorized or is not consistent with this PAC Agreement. To obtain more information on recourse rights, payors should contact their financial institution or visit www.payments.ca.

Sun Life Financial Privacy Statement for Canada

Respecting your privacy

Respecting your privacy is a priority for the Sun Life Financial group of companies. We keep in confidence personal information about you and the products and services you have with us to provide you with investment, retirement and insurance products and services to help you meet your lifetime financial objectives. To meet these objectives, we collect, use and disclose your personal information for purposes that include: underwriting; administration; claims adjudication; protecting against fraud, errors or misrepresentations; meeting legal, regulatory or contractual requirements; and we may tell you about other related products and services that we believe meet your changing needs. The only people who have access to your personal information are our employees, distribution partners such as advisors, and third-party service providers, along with our reinsurers. We will also provide access to anyone else you authorize. Sometimes, unless we are otherwise prohibited, these people may be in countries outside Canada, so your personal information may be subject to the laws of those countries. You can ask for the information in our files about you and, if necessary, ask us in writing to correct it. To find out more about our privacy practices, visit www.sunlife.ca/privacy.

Access to your information

We or our reinsurers may also submit a brief report of our findings to MIB, Inc. (MIB), a non-profit organization of life and health insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If the person named in this application also applies for insurance coverage or submits a claim with another life or health insurance company that is an MIB member, MIB will, on request, supply that insurance company with the information on its files.

MIB receives personal information and the collection, use and disclosure of such information is governed by the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act (PIPEDA) and provincial laws. Therefore, MIB has agreed to protect such information in a manner that is substantially similar to the company's privacy and securities practices, and in accordance with applicable laws. As a U.S. based company, MIB is bound by, and such personal information may be disclosed in accordance with, applicable U.S. laws. If you have any questions about MIB's commitment to protect the confidentiality and security of your personal information, you may contact the MIB Privacy Department at privacy@mib.com.

To learn more about MIB, Inc., you may visit the website at www.mib.com, call 416-597-0590 or write to:
