

Transfer from a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA) to another TFSA on breakdown of marriage or common-law partnership

- Transfers documented in this form must be made directly from a holder's TFSA to the TFSA of the holder's spouse.
- A transfer of property that is not made under an order can impact both the holder's and the spouse's TFSA contribution room.
- Attach a copy of the order ONLY if unable to obtain the spouse's signature. Some financial institutions may request supporting documentation in addition to the holder's signature.
- Tick all boxes which apply. See the reverse of this form for definitions and more information.

Transfer from a Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA) to another TFSA on breakdown of marriage or common-law partnership (cont'd)

Who should use this form and why?

This form is for use by a TFSA holder or the transferor, or for a TFSA holder's spouse or transferee, to request the transfer of an amount in the holder's TFSA to the TFSA of the holder's spouse where:

- those individuals are or were spouses;
- the transfer is required as part of the division of property in the settlement of the individuals' rights with respect to the breakdown of marriage or common-law partnership; and
- the transfer is in accordance with the terms of a valid order.

If you are the individual FROM whose TFSA an amount is to be transferred:

Complete Area I of the form and take, or send the form or your written instructions, to the transferor (your financial institution) or your financial advisor. If you do not have complete information about the TFSA to which the amount is to be transferred, the transferee (the financial institution of your spouse) can complete Part C of Area I.

If you are the individual TO whose TFSA an amount is to be transferred:

Provide the transferor, through your financial institution or your financial advisor, with this form or your written instructions, including a copy of the order if requested (you can include a copy of the order to the transferor sealed in an envelope).

Area I: The holder who requests the transfer completes and signs Area I. A transferor who completes Area I for the holder can attach written instructions from the holder requesting the direct transfer, in place of a signature. If the transferor does not have complete information about the spouse's TFSA, the transferee can complete Part C of Area I.

Area II: The transferee completes and signs Area II, and it is countersigned by the spouse. The transferee can attach written instructions from the spouse acknowledging the certification, in place of a countersignature.

Area III: The transferor completes and signs Area III.

Are there any tax implications?

No amount transferred in accordance with this form is reported as a TFSA withdrawal or a contribution to a TFSA for income tax purposes, nor does such a transfer alter the permitted TFSA contributions of either individual. Do not issue a tax receipt for tax purposes.
